

Carlisle Sale - 2021

Plenty of excitement at Carlisle today with sheep selling well to breeders and commercial customers. A noted high quality of sheep meant that buyers were not disappointed.

The shearling ewes broke the £200 average barrier to finish at £208. Topping the section was the first prize pen from JK Goldie, Dumfries which sold for £300/head to I Valentine, Boosbeck. L Jenkinson, Kirkby Stephen sold the second prize pen for £270/head to Twose Farms Ltd, Whitland. The same buyer bought their next pen at £250/head. JA & R Geldard & Sons, Kendal sold two pens at £245/head, first five were purchased by Capper Farming, Johnstone, next a pen of fifteen went home with MJ Wells & Sons, Bakewell. JK Goldie also had a pen away at £245/head to I Valentine. 42 pens sold for £200 plus. Away from the breeders type sheep, many sheep were able to be purchased for £160 -£195 with several buyers looking to use as recipients. A couple of smaller lots late in the ballot sold for £150-160.

There was the usual class for the individual shearling ewe which saw the first prize from H Goldie sell for £400 to C Long, Strabane. The second prize from Farmstock Genetics, Selkirk sold for £300 to Jenkinson Ltd, Hartley. L Jenkinson, Kirkby Stephen sold the third prize for £350 to J Kingan, Troqueer. The £350 is being donated to Parkinsons UK in memory of Linda's father who passed away in February.

The ewe lamb buyers could be selective with better older/better grown lambs being picked out. The top price came from the pen of Farmstock Genetics, Selkirk who sold their first prize pen for £260/head to the judge Bethan Vaughan, Tufton, Pembroke. L Jenkinson sold next with five selling for £160/head to AW Watson, Lockerbie. The first pen into the ring from GH Blakey, Morpeth sold for £145/head to AG Selway, Dorset. At the same price Messrs Blakey sold a pen of ten to Bethan Vaughan. Sellers could agree sales for the better grown lambs at £118/head plus. £100-£110 saw a few change hands with some smaller/late born lambs changing hands in the £90's.

The ram sale saw a crowd at the ringside until the end with only 7 (of which most were at the end of the sale) out of the 119 forward failing to find new homes. The highlight came from well known breeders E & D Jones, Machynlleth with Lluest (00599/2011824) sired by Whitcastles Hot Stuff selling to the judge Terry Fort, for his Forts Flock at Keighley. Messrs Jones had the next best price at 3500gns when selling Lluest (00599/2012009) sired by Wraycastle Edwaldo to Sian Jones for her Pentre Flock near Wrexham. The pen of Laga Farms, Orkney won the new class.
