

Lleyn Sheep Society Sale
Ross on Wye Thursday 5th September 2013

A day when the good sheep sold well. The commercial buyers were out in force for the shearling ewes and the rams. 21 pens of shearlings sold for £140/head and over. There were 11 rams raised over 1000gns with 30 falling into the 500-800gns range.

It was a great day for Wallace & Josie McCurdie of Rugby. They won the shearling class in the pre sale show and then went on to realise the top price in this section. Their 1st prize pen sold for £180/head to D Steen, Lockerbie. Their second pen into the ring sold for the day's top of £240/head to R Nakiglny, Hereford. Jim Dufosee, Warminter had the next top at £212 to E Williams, Neath.

In the ewe lamb section again it was the 1st prize pen from WJ & DJ Williams, Pwllheli that topped at £150/head to JS & A Radcliffe, Swansea. The second prize pen from C Price, Brecon sold for £142/head to S Prince, Monmouth. P Bennett, Newent sold the third prize pen for £110/head to J Bryan, Malvern.

In the rams DN Bennett & Son, Powys topped at 2400gns for Plasucha Bobbys Boy. A shearling ram bred from a John Morton sire out of a homebred ewe. This lot was purchased by T Rees, Carmarthen. E & D Jones were next with a Llest shearling ram sired by Llest Nobleman. This sold to SL Keswick, Cheltenham for 2100gns. The first prize ram from WJ & DJ Williams, Pwllheli sold for 2000gns to JM & GC Adams, Cornwall. This ram was bred from a Hamish Goldie sire out of a homebred ewe.
