NLSC Special Rules & Entry Conditions

ELEGIBILITY

1. Only registered Lleyn (excluding crossbred lambs) sheep belonging to fully paid up members of the Lleyn Sheep Society, will be accepted in the National Lleyn Sheep Competition.
2. All sheep must be Maedi Visna Accredited.
3. Entry is to be made through a Lleyn Sheep Society Breeders Club with two entry per class, per a club accepted (there are a limited number of pens available, if there is a high uptake the Society may scale back some entries taking in to account the time received therefore those who send their entries in first will be given priority). It is up to the individual clubs how they select their entries.
4. Should there be a lack of entries received by the closing date, the Society has the right to contact breeders and accept entries from individual breeders to fill the allocated pens.

ENTRIES

6. Entries to the Competition must be made on the Pen Booking Forms. All relevant details must be completed in full. Only sheep thus entered will be allowed into the competition. NOTE: If the details are not fully completed the Entry Form will be treated as void.
7. Send the completed entry form to Heather Stoney-Grayshon, 2 White Row Cottages, Greenhow, Harrogate HG3 5JQ promotions@lleynsheep.com

IDENTIFICATION

8. All ewes born from 2009 onwards must be double tagged in accordance with DEFRA rules. Registered sheep must carry the required Society information on the secondary tag (society flock number, year of birth).
9. Cross bred lambs must be double tagged in accordance with DEFRA rules.

ALL SHEEP ENTERED MUST BE PROPERLY TAGGED, THOSE NOT CONFORMING WITH THE ABOVE WILL NOT BE ALLOWED INTO THE COMPETITION.

It is the individual Member's responsibility to comply with the current Government tagging regulations and exhibitors are strongly advised to check the requirements with DEFRA (or equivalent).

PRESENTATION

10. Sheep exhibitors are expected to arrive on Tuesday 5th July between 12noon and 5pm. These times must be adhered to. Sheep arriving outside of these times will be turned away. Sheep arriving late will be disqualified and not allowed to take part in the competition.
11. All sheep must be accompanied by the appropriate Ministry movement licence and a Maedi-Visna movement form. In the absence of either form sheep will not be permitted to unload.
12. All sheep are to be penned in the allocated pens. Stewards will advise.
13. Sheep presented must be untrimmed. Moreover, the Society discourages artificial colouring of wool.

SHEEP INSPECTION

14. A panel chosen by the Society's Council will inspect all sheep. Any entry which does not meet the Society's standards for breed type will be withdrawn. Condition either too lean or too fit will also be scrutinised as this is a public promotional display. Entries which are turned away by the Inspection Panel will not be eligible for any prize money. NOTE: THE PANEL'S DECISION IS FINAL.

ANIMAL HEALTH

15. Exhibitors are encouraged to treat sheep against scab within 28 days before the event.
16. Exhibitors with sheep showing signs of any contagious disease will be asked to remove the sheep from the event premises immediately. Where necessary, the whole consignment may have to be removed.

DISPUTES

17. In case of dispute between the Exhibitor and the Society in which a Veterinary Surgeon is called, the Veterinary Surgeon finds in favour of the Exhibitor, the Society will be liable to pay the veterinary fees. However, if the Veterinary Surgeon finds in favour of the Society, the Exhibitor will be liable to pay the veterinary fees.
18. Society Representatives will be present to be consulted in the case of disputes.
19. Any dispute concerning the ear tag numbers of sheep will be the responsibility of the Exhibitor and any cost incurred as a result will fall entirely upon the Exhibitor.

In all such cases Participants will be required to notify the Organiser of: the animal's identification number; the drug's name; the volume of the drug administered; the batch number and expiry date; the person who administered the drug; and the date and time of administration.

All animals will be treated free of charge at the Show, unless in the vets opinion they have been subject to malpractice. In which case the exhibitor will be charged for the drugs used by the vet to treat the resulting condition.

All animals shall either have access to a suitable water supply or be provided with an adequate supply of fresh drinking water each day.

PART II

All Participants agree to abide by the following procedures:

Refusal to co-operate with the Inspector is a ground for disqualification.

Participants shall deliver, immediately upon request, to an Inspector any hypodermic syringe, needle or any other device, swabs, cloths or other material, or samples, or any medicine, preparation or substance (whether in liquid or other form), in the possession or control of the Participant, his or her fitter, agents, or persons acting on his or her behalf, for the purpose or inspection or laboratory analysis.

All entries and property of the Participants are subject to inspection by the Inspectors. Participants shall co-operate with the Inspectors and shall:

provide access to the animal(s) owned or exhibited by the Participant at the Show;

provide all information reasonably required by the Inspector(s) in connection with such inspections; provide samples of urine, milk, blood, or any other body fluids suitable for analysis from the relevant animal(s), if so requested;

allow all udders of any bovine animal(s) owned or exhibited by the Participant at the Show to be scanned on request of an Inspector.

remain at the head of the animal and not touch the udder until scanning has taken place.

Participants shall remove any udder supports, blankets or other objects limiting the ability of the inspector to undertake a thorough inspection of any bovine animal(s) owned or exhibited by the Participant at the Show.

Participants agree to act at all times in accordance with the Rules and Regulations and the Procedures, and will accept any final decision made thereunder.

Participants may be liable for all veterinary expenses in relation to their animal(s), if required by the Organiser, while their animal(s) is/are at the Venue.

Bovine Tuberculosis

Bovine Animals whether individually restricted or part of a herd restricted under the Tuberculosis (England) Order 2007 (as amended) shall not be permitted to attend the Show.

Participants shall ensure that all Bovine Animals from all areas have received a clear TB test prior to such animals being transported to the Venue as required under the Tuberculosis (England) (Amendment) Order 2012. Testing must have taken place not more than 60 days prior to the date of transportation to the Venue (from date of injection).

The 2012 Tuberculosis (England)(Amendment) Order will require cattle attending a Show in GB to have a pre-movement TB test applied in the following circumstances: Where any cattle will or may be housed in a solid or temporary structure with roof and sides; OR Where any of the cattle will be on the site for over 24 hours. (APHA)

Details of the test results must be sent to the Show Organiser prior to the Show or be presented to the Chief Vet or Inspector immediately upon the arrival of each relevant Bovine Animal at the Venue. The Show Organiser has the right to refuse cattle entry to the Show if the test results are not presented.

If a Bovine Animal dies while at the Venue the Participant owning or exhibiting the deceased Bovine Animal shall ensure that the deceased Bovine Animal be subject to an independent post-mortem in accordance with the instructions of the Organiser, and must be removed from site within 1 hour of it dying. The Organiser will pay for the Post Mortem which will be carried out by the local APHA Laboratory. The Participant will be responsible for transporting the animal to this location.

If an Ovine Animal dies while at the Venue the Participant owning or exhibiting the deceased Ovine Animal shall ensure that the deceased Ovine Animal be subject to an independent post-mortem in accordance with the instructions of the Organiser, and must be removed from site within 1 hour of it dying. The Organiser will pay for the Post Mortem which will be carried out by the local VLA in Luddington. The Participant will be responsible for transporting the animal to this location.

Standard Procedures and Penalties for Enforcing the Rules and Regulations

The purpose of these procedures is to put into effect the Rules and Regulations as published by the Organiser from time to time. Where there is any conflict between the Rules and Regulations and these Procedures, the Rules and Regulations shall prevail to the extent of the conflict.

All Participants must sign the applicable agreement(s) annexed to these Rules and Regulations to abide by the Rules and Regulations, either as a separate document or as part of the entry form. All Participants agree that they have read and accepted the Rules and Regulations and the Procedures as a condition of their participation at the Show.

The Rules Committee for the Show will be responsible for overseeing compliance with the Rules and Regulations.

The Inspectors shall monitor compliance of the Rules and Regulations. To help in this regard the Inspectors and the agents or representatives acting under the instructions of any Inspector shall have the authority (which each relevant Participant hereby grants) to perform on any Bovine or Ovine Animal in the Show at the Venue any of the following:

a full body inspection of the animal (including, but not limited to the udder);

an ultrasound examination of the udder at any time;

a milk out of any individual cow or cows;

the collection and testing at any time of any animal's body fluids;

the use at any time of any other technology and other inspections and/or analysis (including autopsy), that an Inspector (or his or her agent or representative), acting reasonably, considers may be useful for assessing compliance with the Rules and Regulations.

All Participants at the Show shall provide promptly to the Rules Committee, upon request, such information and shall produce such documents as may be required by the Rules Committee for the proper monitoring of compliance with the Rules and Regulations and shall fully co-operate with any inspections.

At any time the Rules Committee reserves the right to ask a Participant to consider withdrawing their Bovine or Ovine Animal from a show class before entering the show ring if;

a complaint has been received of a possible violation of the Rules and Regulations for Showing Bovine and Ovine Animals concerning the Bovine or Ovine Animal to be shown, or the Rules Committee has a reasonable belief that there would be violation of the Rules and Regulations for Showing Bovine and Ovine Animals if the Participant's Bovine or Ovine Animal is shown.

If the Participant decides not to show the animal after receiving such a warning, no violation of the Rules and Regulations for Showing Bovine and Ovine Animals will be considered to have occurred and no disciplinary measures will be taken against the Participant.

Notwithstanding the above, at any time during the Show, the Rules Committee reserves the right to disqualify a Participant, the Participant's Bovine or Ovine Animal(s) or both at the Show, if they believe there has been a violation of the Rules and Regulations, these Procedures, or the Terms and Conditions of the Show.

Where, the Rules Committee considers that there has been a violation of the Rules and Regulations, these Procedures, or, as per the Livestock Event Terms & Conditions, the Terms and Conditions of the Show, the accused Participant shall be notified of the alleged violation and shall, confidentially, be provided with information supporting the basis for the allegation.

The Rules Committee shall discuss any alleged violation of the Rules and Regulations or other procedures or terms and conditions relating to any animal that has been shown at the Show.

An accused Participant shall be asked to respond to the allegations. It is the obligation of every Participant, whenever requested, to meet with the Rules Committee and to give whatever information and produce whatever documents may be required for the proper determination of matters pending before the Rules Committee. The Rules Committee will determine if any violation of the Rules and Regulations, the Procedures and/or the Terms and Conditions of the Show has occurred and announce appropriate disciplinary measures. A finding of a violation and recommendation of disciplinary measures requires agreement by a majority of the Rules Committee. The determinations will be reported in writing to the Organiser, with a copy to the affected Participant(s).

Within ten (10) days of the Rules Committee report being received, any Participant determined to have violated the Rules and Regulations, the Procedures and/or the Terms and Conditions of the Show by the Rules Committee may appeal in writing to the Organiser. A copy of the appeal shall be given to any other party that the Organiser sees fit, who may respond to those comments within ten (10) days of receipt of the written appeal. The Appeals Committee shall consider the appeal and finally determine whether a violation(s) has taken place. The Appeals Committee shall then inform the Participant(s) of the outcome of the Appeals Committee's decision. The results of the Rules Committee and/or the Appeals Committee will be published on the Organiser's website and the Manager's website.

In the event the Rules Committee and (if relevant) the Appeals Committee decides a violation(s) has/have taken place the Organiser has the power to impose all of or any of the following penalties:

public censure;

disqualification or suspension of Participants from Show and future shows operated by the Organiser for up to three (3) years;

disqualification of any bovine or ovine animal owned or shown by a Participant / Participants in breach of the Rules and Regulations, the Procedures and/or the Terms and Conditions of the Show from the Show and future shows operated by the Organiser for up to three (3) years.

notification to applicable cattle associations;

forfeiture of any prizes or prize money already received or to be received; and/or the levy of a charge for the recovery of the reasonable costs incurred by the Rules Committee, the Appeals Committee, the Manager and/or the Organiser in relation to the violation(s).

Penalties for violation are at the absolute discretion of the Organiser.

The decision of the Organiser in relation to imposing penalties is final.

REGULATIONS

Exhibitors making entries in any class are subject to and must observe and conform to these Regulations in addition to the RABDF Rules and Regulations for Showing.

DEFINITIONS

In these Regulations, unless the context otherwise requires, the under-mentioned expressions shall have the following meaning respectively:

'Exhibitor' means (a) a person or his executor/s or a firm exhibiting livestock: (b) a person or firm who occupies space for the purpose of advertising or sale: (c) a person or firm who competes in any competition: and (d) the representative or agent of any of the above.

For the purpose of the Livestock Event, the definition of exhibitor bred is: An animal is defined as Exhibitor Bred if it is born in the U.K. and carries the owner's prefix. This includes animals born as a result of embryo transplant.

An animal in joint ownership qualifies as exhibitor bred providing it has been jointly entered and one of the joint owners is the breeder.

'The Organiser' means RABD Events Ltd, a trading subsidiary of the Royal Association of British Dairy Farmers.

'The NEC' means National Exhibition Centre, Birmingham B40 1NT.

Stall booking forms must be signed and accompanied by the necessary fees and must be received by the 29th May 2015. Cheques should be made payable to 'RABDF Events Ltd' and crossed.

Every exhibitor will be held responsible for the correctness of details given on the Entry Form, Animal Admission Card/s, other documents and individual exhibitors shall, if called upon to do so, prove their correctness in such manner as the Organiser may require. The Organiser or its officials, in their absolute discretion and without assigning any reason therefore, may refuse an entry, or cancel an entry already accepted. Whenever under this Rule an entry is refused or cancelled, the fees paid for such an entry, at the discretion of the Organiser, shall be refunded and if refunded, shall be accepted by the exhibitor or intending exhibitor in full satisfaction of all claims against the Organiser.

Exhibitors or their Stock attendants must take total responsibility for their stock at all times, whilst at the NEC. All persons in charge of exhibits will be subject to the orders of the stewards and will be required to parade or exhibit the animals in their charge at such times as may be directed by the Stewards. No Stock attendants shall be allowed to lead more than one animal at a time in the Judging rings.

Judges: A Judge shall not exhibit in the class, classes or breed in which he or she is officiating.

Each animal to be exhibited at the Event must be accompanied by such herdbook or flock certificates as necessary, to verify animal identification.

Herd & Flock Publicity Material will be permitted over stalls and pens reserved by the Exhibitor on the strict understanding that it does not interfere with the Event headboard cards and does not cause annoyance to adjacent exhibitors or those at the rear of the stalls concerned. Promotional displays must not exceed the height of the headboard rail. There is to be no Third Party advertising of any description. No decoration except those provided by the Organiser shall be worn by any animal in the judging ring.

Fodder. The RABDF will provide bedding for cattle and sheep. No feed will be provided.

Protests. Protests against any award or result must be made in writing and delivered either to the Chief Cattle Steward or the Livestock Coordinator at the Event Office on the Showground by 1800hrs on the day of the announcement of the result. A deposit of £25 will be required with each protest, which shall be forfeited if, in the opinion of the Organiser the protest has been made without due grounds.

Smoking is prohibited in the Event Building at all times.

Improper conduct/violation of showing rules. Should any improper conduct or violation of breed society approved showing rules be brought to the attention of the Organiser, they will have absolute discretion to take whatever action they deem appropriate whilst at the Event against the exhibitor concerned. Such action may include:

Withdrawing or cancelling prizes awarded to his or her animals.

Excluding the exhibitor concerned from further participation in the Event and if deemed necessary banning the exhibitor from participation in any future Livestock Event.

Any other action deemed appropriate by the Chief Cattle Steward, Chief Event Steward, Event Director or the Chief Executive.

The Organiser may report any decision that they take to the breed society in whose herd book the animal(s) is so registered.

No person will be allowed to use any boiling or cooking appliance of any description within the cattle lines or sheep pens ALL ELECTRICAL APPLIANCES USED IN THE PREPARATION OF SHOW ANIMALS MUST CARRY VALID PAT TEST CERTIFICATES.

An exhibitor must at once remove from the Event any exhibit which in the opinion of the Chief Executive, or Official Event Stewards is likely to be dangerous, objectionable or an annoyance to other exhibitors or persons attending The Event.

The Organiser will not be liable or responsible for exhibits of livestock, crates, boxes or any other property of exhibitors, while at the Event or during transit, and any injury, damage or loss must be borne by the exhibitor, who is strongly advised to make suitable insurance arrangements.

The Organiser will not be liable or responsible to any exhibitor for injury, damage or loss occasioned by or arising out of the holding of Events or occasioned by or arising out of the act or default of any other person in attendance or present threat, or if the Event in any year or years is abandoned for any reason or if the period of its advertised duration is shortened, or for any mistake in an entry form or in the Event Show Guide or catalogue.

The Organiser will not be liable or responsible for any injury, damage, or loss caused by or arising out of any exhibit, machinery or thing belonging to an exhibitor. Each exhibitor shall hold the Organiser harmless, and indemnify them against such injury, damage, loss or any legal proceeding in connection therewith.

All exhibitors shall conform immediately and without question to any instruction issued by the Event Safety Officer.

Bio-security. The Show is licensed in accordance with the requirements of the Animal Gatherings Order 2003. All animal attendants are asked to co-operate by observing the Bio-Security rules. The animal areas should be kept clean and free from faecal contamination. Attendants should wear protective clothing and footwear capable of being disinfected whilst in the animal area. When leaving the animal area, attendants should remove protective clothing, wash their hands and ensure that footwear is clean. When showing, clean breed uniforms and suitable footwear should be worn.

Malpractices. Any artificial contrivance or device of any description found on or proved to have been on an animal at any time, either for preventing the flow of milk or for any other improper purpose, will disqualify that animal from being awarded a prize and the owner of the animal may be prohibited from entering stock at future events. For the purpose of this Regulation, the term "improper practice" shall be held to include, setting of teats, and generally any other practice which results in the animals being shown other than in a natural state, and the Organiser reserves the right to have all animals inspected by the SVO either prior to, during, or after judging.

Abortions & Premature Calvings. Any animal which calves prematurely or aborts (which, under current Transport Regulations, will be all cattle that calve or show evidence of calving) must be immediately isolated and the calving reported to the DVM at the local Animal Health Office.

Welfare

Hoses: Only low-pressure hoses can be used for the washing of cattle.

ADMISSION AND DEPARTURE OF STOCK. Admission will only be permitted on production of a Cattle Passport, TB Certificate, official lactation record card, the breed pedigree certificate and the completed animal admission card (where applicable). Once admitted, no animal will be permitted to leave without the written authority of the Veterinary Officer or Chief Cattle Steward, until the conclusion of the show on Thursday 9th July 2015. All animals arriving at the NEC should be double tagged in accordance with DEFRA rules. On entering the NEC, whilst there, and upon leaving, each animal must have a halter and be led by a stock attendant. NB All animals must be halter trained.

The Organiser reserves the right to refuse admission of an entry on arrival at the Showground should they consider this necessary.

Please note that ALL Competitive Dairy Cattle need to arrive on Monday 6th July 2015 between 0900 – 1800 hrs.

Please note that ALL Competitive Beef Cattle and Sheep need to arrive on Tuesday 7th July 2015 between 0900 – 1800 hrs.

Cattle trucks and livestock trailers will be admitted to the Event area for the collection of animals from 1700hrs on Thursday 9th July 2015. Cattle and sheep must remain in their stalls or pens until 1700 hrs on Thursday. A parking area will be reserved for vehicles bringing stock to the Event and all stock vehicles MUST be parked in this area.

MILK. The milking parlour will be open for the duration of the show.

All animals must be machine-milked. Exhibitors must provide their own milking units for use at the Event and will be responsible for their care, operation and cleanliness at all times. Portable milking machines are not allowed. Provision will not be made for the use of electronic pulsation milking equipment. No milk may be taken from the Bulk Tank.

Any exhibitor or his agent who in the opinion of the Society has delivered milk to the dairy containing anti-biotic or any other foreign substance without declaring such to the Dairy Steward in charge shall be liable to compensate the RABDF for all the milk contaminated by such delivery.

No Children (Under the age of 13) will be allowed in the 'Event Area' during build up or break down, including whilst livestock is being unloaded or loaded.

Children under the age of 13 are only allowed in the 'Event Area' including the Livestock Hall on the Show days – 8th & 9th July 2015.

Wheelchairs or perambulators will only be allowed in the stock lines once the Livestock Hall is 'in Show'.

Condition of entry: All exhibitors' names and addresses will be printed in the catalogue.

All prize winners must be available for photographs for the press as requested.

DISCLAIMER

The Organiser at their absolute discretion and without assigning any reason therefore, may refuse an application for stalling or penning or cancel any application already accepted. Whenever, under this Regulation, any application is refused or cancelled, the fees paid for such may, at the discretion of the Organiser, be refunded, and if refunded, shall be accepted by the exhibitor or intending exhibitor in full satisfaction of all claims against the Organiser.

Exhibitors will be held responsible for the conduct and behaviour of their employees and agents, prior during and following the Livestock Event. Exhibitors will also be held responsible for any damage caused by their contractors, agents or staff.

Exhibitors must carry out the requirements and instructions of any one of the following: the Chief Executive, the Chief Event Steward, the Event Safety Officer, the Event Director or the Event Livestock Coordinator.

No Exhibitor shall be permitted to sell or exhibit any article which (i) has not been duly notified to or (ii) to which reasonable objection is taken by the Chief Executive, the Chief Event Steward, the Event Safety officer, the Event Director or the Event Livestock Coordinator. Where this rule is infringed the Organiser may close the stand on which such prohibited articles shall have been offered for sale or exhibited.

The Organiser will not be liable or responsible for loss or damage to or safety of any exhibits, stalls, stands, crates, boxes or any other property of exhibitors, whilst at the Livestock Event or during transit, and any injury or damage thereto must be borne by exhibitors who, without limiting their obligation to take out insurance cover for such risks as they consider appropriate, must effect their own insurance against all such risks.

The Organiser will not be liable or responsible to any exhibitor for any injury, damage or loss occasioned by or arising out of the holding of the Livestock Event, or occasioned by or arising out of the act or default of any person on attendance or present threat (save for death or personal injury to the exhibitor or agents or contractors or other invitees of the exhibitor arising from the negligence of the organiser), or for any mistake in application or entry form in the Show Guide of the Livestock Event.

The Organiser will not be liable or responsible for any injury, damage or loss occasioned by or arising in any way out of any exhibit, machinery or battle belonging to any exhibitor. Each exhibitor shall hold the organiser harmless and indemnify and keep them indemnified against such injury, damage or loss, charges, expenses (including loss of profits and consequential loss) and legal proceedings in connection therewith.

If any part of this regulation is held by any competent authority to be invalid or unenforceable in whole or in part, the validity of the other provisions of these regulations and the remainder of the provision in question shall not be affected.

Acceptance of these regulations will be a condition of entry and it is the responsibility of exhibitors to ensure that they understand and comply with these regulations.

The Organiser shall not be liable to any exhibitor or be deemed to be in breach of any contract with an exhibitor by reason of any delay in performing, or in any failure to perform, any of the Organisers' obligations in relation to the Livestock Event if the delay or failure was due to any reason beyond the Organisers reasonable control. Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing the following should be regarded as causes beyond the Organisers reasonable control: -

Acts of God, explosion, flood, tempest, terrorist attack, fire or accident;

Outbreaks of notifiable disease in animals and humans.

Acts, restrictions, regulation, byelaws, prohibitions or measures of any kind on the part of Governmental, Parliamentary or Local Authority;

Import or Export regulations or embargoes;

Strike, lockouts or other industrial actions or trade disputes (whether involving employees of the Organiser or a third party);

Difficulties in obtaining raw materials, labour, fuel, parts or machinery.
